1. Course Description. This class is a hybrid class; however this program is design to develop the four language skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing skills. The emphasis of this first semester is conversational proficiency, and those structures used in frequently occurring language situations will be stressed. The fundamentals of grammar will be presented. You will be expected to participate orally in class and to interact meaningfully with your teacher and classmates in Spanish, as well in your on-line assignments. Lecture 2:00 hours per week.
2. Introduction. This course is specifically intended for those students who have no previous experience with the Spanish language. It is the first course of four, which lead to fulfillment of the general education requirement for a major in Liberal Arts. In addition to acquiring skills in using Spanish, you will be gaining knowledge about how the Spanish language, and by comparison, the English language, are structured.
3. Learning Objectives.
 - A. To refine all phonemic usage of the Spanish language.
 - B. To encourage the practice of oral communication skills in Spanish.
 - C. To introduce Hispanic and Spanish-American culture through selected reading and classroom discussions.
 - D. To present basic grammatical structures of the Spanish language so that the students will be able to effectively communicate in spoken Spanish.
4. Course Content. Students will cover from Lección Preliminar through Lección 5 of the text. Textbook plays an important role in your learning and can be optimized by proper usage. Textbook presents material to be memorized and prepared by you as is shown in your syllabus. Follow the weekly Module assignment. Good preparation is the basis for success. Specific homework is assigned to help to prepare or practice, but you should not limit yourself to completing assignments. Instructor will provide extra links where to go.
5. Academic Evaluation.

A. Class Participation	15 %
B. Quizzes and Homework	35 %
C. Midterm Exam	25 %
D. Final Exam	25 %

E. Clarification of grading procedures:

1. 90 -100 = A; 80 -89 = B; 70 -79 = C; 60 - 69 = D; >60 = F
2. Participation. Coming to class is not sufficient. Be prepared to answer and questioning other peers beside the teacher.
3. Quizzes: students will take one quiz after finishing the chapter. They will add points toward their final grade. Homework means home work. You will work at home or outside class.
4. Midterm and Final. The midterm test will cover Lección Preliminar through 2. The final exam will focus on the last Lecciones but will be cumulative over material presented during the entire semester.
5. Final exam is oral and written; missing one of them is missing all of them. Only students with less than 70% achieved on the class will take it.
6. In order to pass the entire semester the final exam should be at least a Passing Grade. Extra Work will be discussed with the instructor before a grade be granted.

6. Required textbooks / Course materials:

- B. Mosaicos. Workbook, Fifth Edition (Prentice Hall) (no necessary)
